> VANDALIA, March 18.—Col. Aaron McPike, the subject of this narrative, was born in Henry county, Kentucky, March 16, 1814. His father, Edward McPike, was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. His mother was Sallie Vancleave of a pioneer Kentucky family also. At an early day Col. McPike came to Missourl and later, about 1874, settled at Vandalia, where himself and Judge Harmon Caldwell surchased the half section of land or which the city of Vandalia now stands. At the beginning of life he started at the foot round of the ladder, financially, but he was full of energy thrift and enterprise and prevased a judgment far superior to the ordinary individual. He left Kentucky for Missouri in 1838, settled in Marion county 7 miles from Palmyra. In 1843 he moved to near Ashley, in Pike county, where he became the overseer of a large plantation then owned by his cousin, Mrs. Aley Mc-After two years' resident there, he married Miss Susan Pritchett of that county, and soon moved back to Marion county, where he re mained two or three years, then returned to the land of "Joe Bowers" and purchased a large body of land alles south from Bowling Green

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the bead and the brouchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous actin and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the miscous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes rad, bearing affected and a constant inging in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected, and the standard of the stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects.
